Dear Mr. Kaepkulov Kanybek (AIA number: 40818353),

Congratulations! On behalf of the American Institute of Architects (AIA), located in Washington, DC, we invite you to present your article "Impact on Climate Change through World Urbanization" on 22-30 April, 2024 as a part of the AIA Conference on Architecture & Design, which will be held in Washington, DC. This letter serves as the official confirmation of your selection.

AIA24 is a premier annual conference that celebrates multidisciplinary solutions from across the built environment and the power of designing a better world, together.

Through networking, education, events, tours, and the industry's largest expo, AIA fosters cross-industry collaborations and solutions between licensed architects, design professionals, associates, engineers, contractors, interior designers, landscape architects, firm owners, owners/clients, emerging professionals, and beyond to showcase the strength of the AEC industry.

We look forward to welcoming you to the AIA Conference on Architecture & Design 2024.

Sincerely,

Kimberly N. Dowdell

2024 President

AIA, NOMAC
